

Snapshot: Professional Coaching Course (PCC)

Accreditation	The PCC is accredited by the International Coaching Federation as an Accredited Coach Training Program (ACTP)
Outcomes	Graduates of the PCC will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Develop their own coaching practice. ▪ Add to a current consulting practice. ▪ Provide professional-level coaching within their organization. ▪ Fully integrate coaching into their leadership.
Number of participants	We limit our course participation to 20 students.
Duration	One year
Face-to-face sessions	There are four classroom sessions, each lasting four days, Thursday through Sunday. We begin at 9:00 am and end at 7:00 pm each day.
Locations	San Francisco, Chicago, Boston, Ottawa, Montréal, Cape Town, Singapore
Frequency	Groups start four times a year in San Francisco and generally once a year in each of the other cities.
Tuition	$9,500. This includes all four classroom sessions, books, materials, pod meetings, coaching sessions and certification.
Application process	A fully completed application with essays, a JPEG photo and a $500 non-refundable deposit are required for consideration.
Prerequisite	Either the two-day Coaching to Excellence course or the three-day Integral Coaching Principles course (for experienced coaches).
Organization of the course	The PCC takes place over one year. It includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Four face-to-face sessions ▪ Individual integral development program custom-designed for you ▪ Individual coaching from course faculty ▪ Feedback on your coaching in both written and verbal forms ▪ Regular meetings with small group pod and with pod mentor ▪ “Coach’s Bookshelf,” a list of books to read for the course ▪ Written assignments ▪ Certification process
Estimated time needed	Students report that they spend an average of five to ten hours a week engaging in course work.